Custom Bathroom Buyer's Guide

For most people, buying a home is a major personal milestone and a joyous occasion. They treasure the moment because they know that homeowners have a special resource and investment that will serve them well in the years to come. Homeowners take great pride in their accomplishment.

For most people, buying a home takes an incredible amount of hard work and effort, and they do it because the advantages make it all worth it. However, with those benefits come the responsibility of making the most of your investment. One way of enhancing the value of that investment and getting the most out of the privilege of home-ownership is to have your bathroom remodeled by Bath Planet's bathroom remodeling in Atlanta GA.

1. Why is remodeling my bathroom with a Bath Planet bathroom a smart choice?

Some people have their doubts about remodeling their bathroom. They don't see it as an investment that will pay off in the long run, but in actuality getting your Atlanta bathroom remodeled is one of the best things you can do to improve your ROI on your home investment. This is because a modern bathroom can help you sell your home faster, or even allow you to get top dollar for your home in the right market conditions. Even if you're not planning on putting your home on the market for now, remodeling your bathroom is a long-term investment that you can enjoy right away. You can have confidence in Bath Planet's quality service and expertise to get you the kind of results that come with experience, specialization, knowledge, and care.

2. Will a new Bath Planet bathroom increase my resale value?

It depends. If you're in a seller's market, a remodeled bathroom may very well help you get your asking price. On the other hand, in a more challenging market, you may find that a remodeled bathroom will just help you sell faster. Either way, a remodeled bathroom will make your home much more marketable and attractive to potential buyers, and Bath Planet's grout-free acrylic bathrooms are a huge selling point.

In addition, even if you're not planning on selling soon, a remodeled bathroom means a more comfortable bath experience for you and your family, as well as less work thanks to the Bath Planet's grout-free, acrylic surfaces. Investing in yourself is the best decision you can make, and if you choose Bath Planet to do your Atlanta bathroom remodel, they will be with you every step of the way

3. Will it help my home to sell faster?

Absolutely. Especially if you are in a tight market with a lot of competition for buyers, a new bathroom is one of the main things that will help you stand out. Imagine if you were a buyer, how would you respond to your current bathroom? Would it be a strong selling point? It's difficult for potential buyers to get excited about a home with an obsolete bathroom.

The fact is that nobody wants the extra expense of having to wait around for a home to sell, so if you factor in the time you would waste trying to sell a less marketable home, a remodeled bathroom is definitely a wise investment. Bath Planet offers fast installation at affordable prices, so if you are in the process of selling, it's also the easiest way to upgrade your bathroom and reap the rewards.

4. Should I try to remodel my bathroom myself?

Going the do-it-yourself route is a bad idea for most homeowners. Even if you're seasoned when it comes to home improvement projects, bathrooms pose some challenges best left to the pros. The problem is the plumbing, which makes bathroom installations potentially dangerous when in the hands of weekend warriors. While installing a sink or setting a bathtub aren't particularly difficult tasks, such an installation needs to be done exactly right to be airtight, otherwise your bathroom will end up ruined due to water damage, and all of your time, effort, and money will have been wasted. Not to mention, it isn't uncommon for DIYers to make mistakes with sizes, as the measurements need to be taken in a very specific manner. All in all, your DIY bathroom remodeling project may end up being a false economy.

Even if everything goes right and you don't have to call in a pro to fix something you did wrong, a DIY bathroom might still not be worth it. Your project will probably take much longer than if you hired a professional to remodel your bathroom, so your opportunity cost will be fairly high. Once finished, your DIY project probably won't be comparable to the type of bathroom Bath Planet can provide.

Another reason to go with Bath Planet rather than going it alone is knowing your options. You might not know that you get can a grout-free bathtub that requires far less cleaning and is much less prone to water damage. Working with Bath Planet, you'll get high-quality bespoke products and expert installation all for an affordable price from the leader in Atlanta bathrooms. Even if you're thinking of DIY, it doesn't hurt to evaluate all of your options. You may be pleasantly surprised.

7. What is the Good Housekeeping Seal?

Bath Planet provides products that have been awarded the prestigious Good Housekeeping Seal. The original Good Housekeeping Seal was introduced in 1909, and the seal continues to be a symbol of quality to this day. Each year, thousands of products are evaluated, but just a few make the cut. Products that bear the Good Housekeeping Seal have been through a thorough quality testing process conducted by the Good Housekeeping Institute, a subsidiary of the company that publishes Good Housekeeping, a magazine that has been informing consumers for more than a hundred years. This independent service only bestows the seal on products that meet its exacting standards, meaning that companies cannot simply purchase the right to display it. The seal represents Bath Planet's commitment to quality products and service.
